Hello Parents,

Here's the latest from the 3rd-5th grade classroom.

Book Reports: The 3rd-4th grade students did a great job overall on their cereal box book reports! They performed commercials with these books reports over the past few weeks. Look for a link to these on our class wiki in the next few days!

Computers: In computer class, the students have just finished creating their very own Movie Maker video presentations! The students were able to experiment with using a webcam and recording themselves sharing information in these videos.

Musical: It's hard to believe the musical is just over a week away. Thanks for all the practice you've put into this with your child and any for helping out in many others ways. We cant' wait to share it with you! Dinner Theatre tickets are on sale through March 23rd.

Phonics: In phonics, one of the topics that both the 3rd and 4th grade classes have been reviewing this week is syllables. A great interactive online game to allow students to review this can be found at <http://www.bbc.co.uk/skillswise/game/en01soun-game-syllables-factory> . I also emailed the students a link to this website in their Gmail accounts.

Poems: We were excited to submit our Poems to the Library of Poetry Contest this week! The contest ends May 7th. 3rd-4th graders also finished up a second poem on prepositions this week.

Blessings on the rest of your week!

In Christ,
Miss Bernau
